National Emergency Grant for On the Job Training (NEG/OJT)

Cut Costs and Save money on Training New Employees

A special program utilizing American Recovery and Reinvestment Act Funding (ARRA) is now available through an On-The-Job Training Program. This program is designed to reimburse employers for costs associated with training new hires above and beyond the "new-hire" training. Employers may be eligible for these training funds if the candidate they choose to hire had been unemployed or under-employed for greater than 18.2 weeks any time since 2008. (Participant eligibility must be determined by our staff, prior to hire.) These ARRA funds must be used by June, 2012 (Take advantage of these funds now!)

"Hiring?" "Can't find qualified candidates?" "Hard to fill position?" "Need to train?"

Get reimbursed while you provide training!

up to 50%-90% of employees wages

Before you hire the candidate you are interested in, call us!

Employer Benefits:

- Employer chooses candidate.
- Monthly Reimbursement of up to 50%-90% of the employees wages during the training period.
- Cost savings so employers can invest in other areas.
- Solution to assist in hiring for those hard to fill positions.
- Obtain capable employees that are eager to learn a new skill.
- Customized training specific to your needs.
- Simple and easy process.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to take advantage of these funds! You will be able to hire the individual as soon as the contract is signed. Click on the links to download a copy of our Frequently Asked Questions or NEG/OJT Brochure.

Employer Testimonial

"We were pleased to utilize the On-The-Job training program which helped us hire several promising employees."

"The ability to share the salary costs during the training period made it possible for us to recently extend an employment offer to an unemployed worker."
